

CDPH Weekly Update on Number of Zika Cases in California
March 25, 2016

The following table provides the number of travel-associated cases of Zika in California residents in 2015 and 2016. Twenty-one individuals contracted Zika while traveling outside of the United States and one through sexual contact with a Zika-infected returned traveler. CDPH is following CDC testing guidelines. This table is updated every Friday.

Confirmed Cases of Zika in California, 2015-2016 (as of March 25, 2016)
County	Travel-associated cases*	Locally acquired cases[†]
Alameda	1	0
Contra Costa	3	0
Los Angeles	5	0
Napa	1	0
Orange	1	0
San Bernardino	1	0
San Diego	7	0
San Francisco	1	0
San Joaquin	1	0
Yolo	1	0
Total	22	0

*Travelers returning from affected areas or their sexual contacts

[†]Presumed local mosquito-borne transmission

Includes one non-resident